FRUSTRATION

I dip my fountain pen into the ink container. I place the pen on the paper. What will be the first words of the Declaration of Independence? They must be convincing and also get the message to King George that we want to be free. After waiting for what seems like an hour, I print the words “The Colonists of the new land want to...” No! That won’t do. The words must be more convincing. I crumble the paper and throw it across the room. I dip the pen again and place the pen on a new, clean sheet of paper. Now I print the words “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal...” “No! That will go later in the paper,” I scream, now ripping up the paper. I’m so angry that when I dip my pen, ink splatters on my white cuff. After an hour, I decide on the first words: “When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds...” “Yes! Those will be the first words of the Declaration of Independence,” I say, leaping for joy.

“THE TALE OF JOHNNY TOWN-MOUSE” BY BEATRIX POTTER²

1. Johnny Town-mouse was born in a cupboard. Timmy Willie was born in a garden. Timmy Willie was a little country mouse who went to town by mistake, in a hamper. The gardener sent vegetables to town once a week by carrier; he packed them in a big hamper.

2. The gardener left the hamper by the garden gate, so that the carrier could pick it up when he passed. Timmy Willie crept in through a hole in the wicker-work, and after eating some peas--Timmy Willie fell fast asleep.
3. He awoke in a fright, while the hamper was being lifted into the carrier's cart. Then there was a jolting, and a clattering of horse's feet; other packages were thrown in; for miles and miles--jolt--jolt--jolt! and Timmy Willie trembled amongst the jumbled up vegetables. At last the cart stopped at a house, where the hamper was taken out, carried in, and set down.
4. Timmy Willie, who had lived all his life in a garden, was almost frightened to death. Presently the cook opened the hamper and began to unpack the vegetables. Out sprang the terrified Timmy Willie.
5. Up jumped the cook on a chair, exclaiming “A mouse! A mouse! Call the cat! Fetch me the poker, Sarah!” Timmy Willie did not wait for Sarah with the poker; he rushed along the skirting board till he came to a little hole, and in he popped.

²Potter, Beatrix. “The Tale of Johnny Town-Mouse.” Public domain. Achieve the Core, <https://achievethecore.org/category/415/ela-literacy-assessments>

6. He dropped half a foot, and crashed into the middle of a mouse dinner party, breaking three glasses. “Who in the world is this?” inquired Johnny Town-mouse. But after the first exclamation of surprise he instantly recovered his manners.

7. With the utmost politeness he introduced Timmy Willie to nine other mice, all with long tails and white neckties. Timmy Willie's own tail was insignificant. Johnny Town-mouse and his friends noticed it; but they were too well bred to make personal remarks; only one of them asked Timmy Willie if he had ever been in a trap?
8. The dinner was eight courses; not much of anything, but truly elegant. All the dishes were unknown to Timmy Willie, who would have been a little afraid of tasting them; only he was very hungry, and very anxious to behave with company manners.
9. “Why don't those youngsters come back with the dessert?” It should be explained that two young mice, who were waiting on the others, went skirmishing upstairs to the kitchen between courses. Several times they had come tumbling in, squeaking and laughing; Timmy Willie learned with horror that they were being chased by the cat. His appetite failed, he felt faint.

10. “Try some jelly?” said Johnny Town-mouse. “No? Would you rather go to bed? I will show you a most comfortable sofa pillow.”

11. The sofa pillow had a hole in it. Johnny Town-mouse quite honestly recommended it as the best bed, kept exclusively for visitors. But the sofa smelt of cat. Timmy Willie preferred to spend a miserable night under the fender.
12. It was just the same the next day. Timmy Willie longed to be at home in his peaceful nest in a sunny bank. The food disagreed with him, and the noise prevented him from sleeping. In a few days he grew so thin that Johnny Town-mouse noticed it and questioned him. He listened to Timmy Willie's story and inquired about the garden. "It sounds rather a dull place. What do you do when it rains?"
13. "When it rains, I sit in my little sandy burrow and shell corn and seeds from my autumn store. And when the sun comes out again, you should see my garden and the flowers--roses and pinks and pansies--no noise except the birds and bees and the lambs in the meadows."

14. "There goes that cat again!" exclaimed Johnny Town-mouse. When they had taken refuge in the coal-cellar he resumed the conversation. "I confess I am a little disappointed; we have endeavored to entertain you, Timothy William."
15. "Oh yes, yes, you have been most kind; but I do feel so ill," said Timmy Willie.
16. "It may be that your teeth and digestion are unaccustomed to our food; perhaps it might be wiser for you to return in the hamper."
17. "Oh? Oh!" cried Timmy Willie.
18. "Why of course! We could have sent you back last week," said Johnny rather huffily. "Did you not know that the hamper goes back empty on Saturdays?"
19. So Timmy Willie said good-bye to his new friends and hid in the hamper with a crumb of cake and a withered cabbage leaf; and after much jolting, he was set down safely in his own garden.

20. Sometimes on Saturdays he went to look at the hamper lying by the gate, but he knew better than to get in again. And nobody got out, though Johnny Town-mouse had half promised a visit.
21. The winter passed; the sun came out again; Timmy Willie sat by his burrow warming his little fur coat and sniffing the smell of violets and spring grass. He had nearly forgotten his visit to town. When up the sandy path all spick and span with a brown leather bag came Johnny Town-mouse!
22. Timmy Willie received him with open arms. "You have come at the best of all the year. We will have herb pudding and sit in the sun."
23. "H'm'm! It is a little damp," said Johnny Town-mouse, who was carrying his tail under his arm, out of the mud. "What is that fearful noise?" he started violently.
24. "That?" said Timmy Willie, "that is only a cow; they are quite harmless, unless they happen to lie down upon you. How are all our friends?"
25. Johnny explained why he was paying his visit so early in the season; the family had gone to the sea-side for Easter. The cook was doing spring cleaning, with particular instructions to clear out the mice. There were four kittens, and the cat had killed the canary.
26. "They say we did it; but I know better," said Johnny Town-mouse. "Whatever is that fearful racket?"
27. "That is only the lawn-mower; I will fetch some of the grass clippings presently to make your bed. I am sure you will never want to live in town again," said Timmy Willie.
28. But he did. He went back in the very next hamper of vegetables; he said it was too quiet!

are discards from a white school, where they were used until they were in very bad condition. Little Man (who is very meticulous) refused to use his book because it was old and dirty. Little Man's teacher became mad and used the whip on him.

As you can see from the situations I have explained, life for the Logans during this time was completely unfair. They were treated unfairly, because their skin is black. The black skinned people in this story were treated with almost no respect from the white skinned people in this story. Although slavery had ended, these people were still treated like slaves because the whites would order them around, and they would have to obey, or risk their lives.
